A. Blackburn (Clerk), public present – one.

The Chairman opened the meeting and welcomed the attendees.

1) Resident Questions/Suggestions.

A resident informed council that grant funding is available from the North Craven Heritage Trust for various projects that preserve historical features and provide for safeguarding of the natural environment.

Examples:

- 1) Restoration of buildings and other features not in private ownership.
- 2) Historical/ archaeological research.
- 3) Cultural events.
- 4) Street furniture and boundary stones.

Stainforth is included within the North Craven area and could possibly benefit from grant funding which is available through the trust.

Action – clerk to add this item to the next PC agenda.

No other issues raised, meeting closed 7.07pm
